AUGUST-2024

By City Historian, Ariel Bero

Downtown Oneida looking north on Main Street. The variety store, W.T. Grant Co. is on the right next to the Kallet Theater. The building is currently occupied by the Madison-Cortland ARC. To the left is the FW Woolworth's department store where Oneida Floral and Gifts is located today. I love so much about this picture and the memories it brings. I love history and appreciate our City Historian for all of her knowledge and resources to preserve our past, present and future! Many thanks to Ariel Bero!

What a difference between a few decades! Before the picture above was taken, this was Main Street and the business section circa 1940. The facades are different of course, and the diner was taken down to build a store front.

In June of 1937, a new hospital combining the private and public hospital opened on Broad Street featuring eighty two beds. 1500 people attended its grand opening where Dr. Eugene H. Carpenter stated "This is indeed a red letter day-a day when dreams come true...". The hospital stayed in operation until 1967 when the hospital moved to its Genesee Street location. In 1998, the decision was made to tear down the former hospital and build a state of the art rehab facility. It opened the following year.

NORTH BROAD STREET SCHOOL

"As the school year comes to an end, we start with new beginnings. As a former North Broad student myself, it was very bittersweet to revisit my former elementary school one last time for the Farewell Open House back in May.

Thank you to all of the teachers and staff who gave myself and so many students such a great experience at North Broad Elementary."

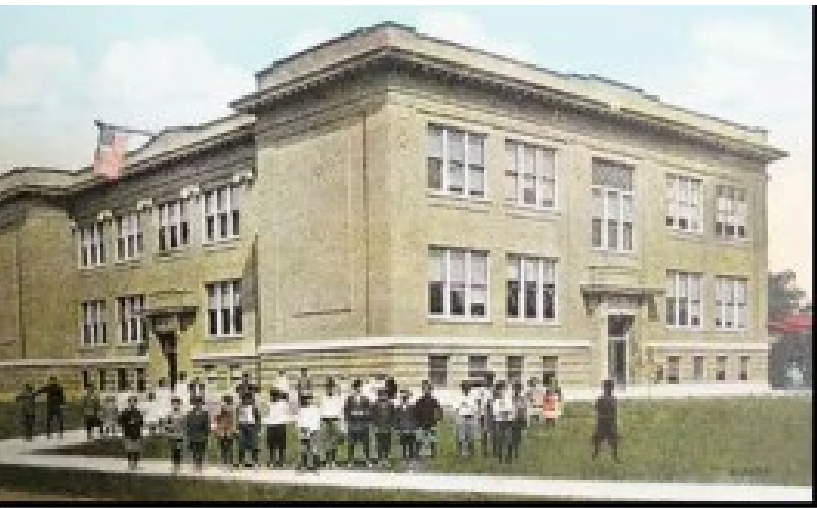

Mayor Rick Rossi
June 20, 2024

Retired North Broad Street School Principal, Bill Simmons and former 4th grade teacher Shelly Roberts Crowley

WE ARE THANKFUL

North Broad Street Elementary
First Class: 1911-1912

North Broad Street Elementary
Final Class: 2023-2024

North Broad Street School was the first school I attended, and my mother worked there for years and shared many memories with her friends Sheila Blair, Regina Rose, and Carol Bennett Madonia, to name a few. This school will always hold a special place in my heart, as it represents my youth, family, and friends from Allen Street. Thank you to all the administrators, office staff, custodians, cafeteria workers, aides, and especially the teachers for your dedication and unwavering commitment to the children you taught and loved. You all gave so much of yourselves without complaint, and you are now and will always be appreciated for all you have done. We wish you the best in your future endeavors and will always remember the impact this school had on our community.

The Latest Update

Ed Riley, Brine Wells Corporation

THE ONEIDA

Developer Ed Riley has worked diligently with the City of Oneida to restore and re-use the deteriorating Oneida Hotel. Since 2009, the old Oneida Hotel has sat vacant on the prominent location of Downtown Oneida. Converting the four-story brick structure into a mixed used building will have a primary use of residential apartments on the upper 3 floors. The ground and lower levels will consist of a restaurant and catering operation. Apartments will be market rate efficiency and one-bedroom units with 4 transient units available for shorter term stays.

Currently we have secured the satisfactory documents to commence demolition and clean up of the site and building with intentions on starting late this summer/early fall. Visuals, currently, are of a vacant deteriorating building; there is not much to see. As work commences, updates and visuals could become available. Ideally, the newly renovated building dubbed “The Oneida” has an estimated opening date of late 2025.

MADISON STREET NEWS

Jim Monahan, Monahan Development Corporation

UPDATE

The City of Oneida is spearheading the Madison Street Revitalization Project, as part of the Round 8 Restore New York Communities Initiative Grant Program. If funded, this project offers a unique opportunity to help revitalize our downtown area by transforming existing structures and vacant land into vibrant mixed-use properties. It will significantly enhance the physical landscape, as well as substantially contribute to Oneida's economic vitality.

Monahan Development Group is waiting to hear from NYS on the status of their application. They have had detailed conversations with the State Historic Preservation Office (SHPO) about the project and are proceeding with the historic review, which is a requirement for any State or Federal grant.

FISHING DERBY-2024

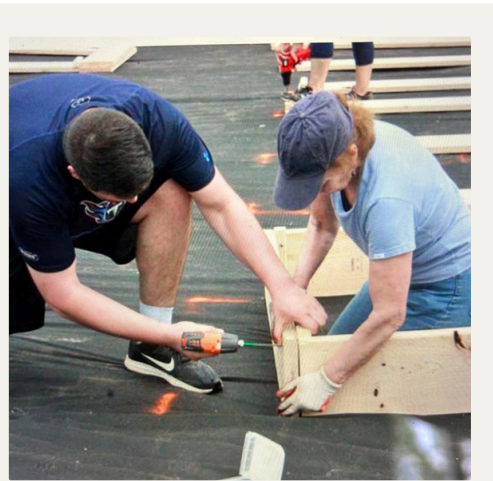

Many thanks to the City of Oneida Police Department, Fire Department, and especially the Parks and Recreation Department for all you did to make the annual Fishing Derby a HUGE success! The kids and their families had a great time and created memories they will always treasure.

The History of

Oneida Office Supply

By Stacy Jones
and Scott Henderson

THE BEGINNING: Around 1951, John Henderson and his young family moved to Oneida for a job opportunity. When that job didn't satisfy him, he looked for a business to buy. He found that the Jones brothers, owners of Jones Brothers Stationers and Decorators, located in the Drake Building on Lenox Ave, wanted to sell. He purchased the business. At that time, the store sold paint, wallpaper, greeting cards, school supplies, stationery, business machines and even had in-house paper hangers.

After about 10 years, John was tired of paying rent and the local Masonic Lodge was for sale, which at that time was a store called Zophy Firestone Store. Zophy's sold bikes, kitchen items and general store items. Bill Zophy, the owner was ready to retire, so John purchased and renovated the space and then moved the entire contents of his store, with help from a few friends, from its Lenox Ave location with hand trucks and dollies over one weekend.

John Henderson incorporates in the 60's and buys the old Masonic Lodge at 226 Main Street.

He soon decided to incorporate and changed the name to Henderson Inc. Mr. Henderson sold the paint and wallpaper portion of the store to Mr. Gene Pavone in 1981 which rented the back part of the Masonic building with the Washington Street entrance as their store. After 32 years, Pavone's Home Decorating was sold to Mike Smith and became Smith's Flooring and Decorating, who has since moved his store to Lenox Ave and that space is currently Nicole's Dance Studio. Henderson's Inc. also housed the Oneida Print Shop as well as a typewriter repair shop along with the office supply store. In 1988, Mr. Henderson sold the store portion to the Leisner's which changed the name to Oneida Office Supply. The store had been vacant for a year, when Helen Acker (later to become Oneida's Mayor) contacted Mr. Henderson and wanted to reopen Oneida Office Supply. Helen renovated it and reopened Oneida Office Supply on February 14, 1992. Helen owned the store, but soon left it in the hands of her husband, Jerry, to run so that she could help Mike Smith over at Smith's Decorating where her passion and talent for decorating and design could be met. Oneida Print Shop moved to their own space on Farrier Ave and the typewriter repair services no longer were offered, but Oneida Office Supply remained a busy and much needed entity in downtown.

Below: Some of the fun storefronts.

JFK visits Oneida in Sept of 1960 and is seen in front of the store.

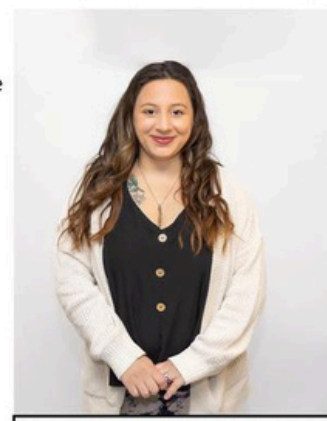

2016 - 2024: After 24 years, Jerry decided that it was time to retire in 2016. Word of Oneida Office Supply closing got to Oneida businesswoman, Nancy Kinney who decided to keep her favorite Oneida storefront open by purchasing it from Helen. Nancy's daughter, Stacy, began managing Oneida Office Supply. Nancy earned official Woman Owned Business certification in 2018. Stacy expanded the school supply selection and offered parents the choice to call in and simply pick up their child's school supply order. This time saving service has become extremely popular over the past 7 years. Stacy and Nancy also added more gift options and more art supplies.

MEET JENNA: On June 6, 2024, Nancy retired and turned the keys over to the newest owner, Jenna Boice. Jenna is a mom of six and very involved in the community. She is excited to bring some new ideas to what every one already loves about OOS. Stacy is remaining at the store for the time being to help Jenna get acclimated with the day to day tasks and is enjoying the new ideas that Jenna is already implementing.

TODAY: the building is still owned by Scott Henderson, son of John Henderson. Oneida Office Supply has BIG plans to grow in the next few months ensuring that it will continue to be in downtown Oneida for future generations to enjoy!! SHOP SMALL & STAY LOCAL!
